Haryana: 6 YO Girl Critical After Alleged Assault By Boy at Panchkula School PTI 31 October 2026 1:07 PM A six-year-old girl was allegedly assaulted by an eight-year-old boy inside a classroom at a school here, leaving her critically injured and hospitalised at PGIMER. School File Image As Preferred Source Panchkula: A six-year-old girl was allegedly assaulted by an eight-year-old boy inside a classroom at a school here, leaving her critically injured and hospitalised at PGIMER in Chandigarh, police said on Friday.The incident took place on October 28, a senior police official said. A purported video of the CCTV footage of the incident circulating on social media shows the boy grabbing the girl by her hair and repeatedly hitting her head against a desk. After she falls to the floor, he allegedly kicks her and strikes her with what appears to be a brick. Also Read - Six Indian Tourists Go Missing While Trekking in Nepal The video also purportedly shows the boy repeatedly kicking the girl and hitting her with the object, leaving her bleeding. DCP (Crime) Amrinder Singh confirmed that the boy is eight years old and the girl is six. Asked about the reason behind the incident, Singh said the boy was undergoing a medical assessment. He said an assessment is conducted in cases involving children aged between seven and 12 years, and further action would be taken based on the report. The girl has been referred to PGIMER, Chandigarh, where she is undergoing treatment for critical injuries, the DCP said. Presently, the police are questioning the school management, and the parents of the boy involved are also being questioned to understand what led to the incident. Police are currently questioning the school authorities as part of the investigation.

https://www.deccanchronicle.com/nation/girl-critically-injured-after-assault-by-3rd-class-boy-in-classroom-at-panchkula-school-2000539 “”

More Update:

> She regained consciousness after 35 hours.

> She will need facial surgery.

> The little girl was lying unconscious and bleeding inside a classroom, but nobody knew.

> After school hours, staff locked the rooms without checking whether any child was still inside.

> When the girl's father reached the school, the attacker himself told him where she was.

> Her father looked through the window and screamed in horror after seeing his daughter covered in blood.

> He rushed to call the teachers and staff, who then opened the classroom.

> He carried his daughter in his arms and rushed her to Alchemist Hospital. Doctors advised taking her to a government hospital.

> According to the father, teachers were busy applying mehendi for Karwa Chauth celebrations, while the children were left unattended.

> Nobody checked the first floor properly after school hours.

> Her Father Said When other children asked the attacker why he did it, he replied, "I enjoy doing it."